Imaginative Horizons Aug 17 2021 How do people make sense of their experiences? How do they understand possibility? How do they limit possibility? These questions are central to all the human sciences. Here, Vincent Crapanzano offers a powerfully creative new way to think about human experience: the notion of imaginative horizons. For Crapanzano, imaginative horizons are the blurry boundaries that separate the here and now from what lies beyond, in time and space. These horizons, he argues, deeply influence both how we experience our lives and how we interpret those experiences, and here sets himself the task of exploring the roles that creativity and imagination play in our experience of the world.

Inside the Mind of BTK Apr 24 2022 A dramatic and compelling true-crime psychological thriller This incredible story shows how John Douglas tracked and participated in the hunt for one of the most notorious serial killers in U.S. history. For 31 years a man who called himself BTK (Bind, Torture, Kill) terrorized the city of Wichita, Kansas, sexually assaulting and strangling a series of women, taunting the police with frequent communications, and bragging about his crimes to local newspapers and TV stations. After disappearing for nine years, he suddenly reappeared, complaining that no one was paying enough attention to him and claiming that he had committed other crimes for which he had not been given credit. When he was ultimately captured, BTK was shockingly revealed to be Dennis Rader, a 61-year-old married man with two children.

Building Billions - Part 3 May 14 2021 By USA Today

Bestselling Author, Lexy Timms. A real man gives up one-night stands for the one he can't stand one night without. Jimmy didn't believe Ashley when she told him who was behind the fraud within the company. Even when it added up. He didn't want to believe it because the accused was a father figure to him, the first person to invest in his company and get it started. Ashley's had no option but to resign from her position. A man who can't trust you is a man you can't keep. Now Jimmy's on a mission; get Ashley back. She's the best thing that's ever happened to him and he just cannot lose her. He knows he's been an idiot, but is it too late to try and win her back? They say LOVE IS A BATTLEFIELD, not a one-night stand. Building Billions: Part 1 Part 2 Part 3

Laura Mulvey 'Visual Pleasure and Narrative Cinema' 1975

Dec 21 2021 Since it first appeared in Screen in 1975, Laura Mulvey's essay "Visual Pleasure and Narrative Cinema" has been an enduring point of reference for artists, filmmakers, writers and theorists. Mulvey's compelling polemical analysis of visual pleasure has provoked and encouraged others to take positions, challenge preconceived ideas and produce new works that owe their possibility to the generative qualities of this key essay. In this book, the celebrated New York-based video artist Rachel Rose (born 1986) has produced an innovative work that extends and adds to the essay's frame of reference. Drawing on 18th- and 19th-century fairy tales, and observing how their flat narratives matched the flatness of their depictions, Rose created collages that connect these pre-cinematic illustrations to what Mulvey describes in her essay--cinema flattening sexuality into visuality.

American Latinos and the Making of the United States Jun 22
2019 "From the founding of St. Augustine, Florida, in 1565, American Latinos have influenced US culture, politics, and economics. This book presents an overview of the Latino journey as documented in the experiences of five individuals whose lives trace major historical developments from the early 19th century to today. They include exiled Cuban priest Félix
Varela, Mexican American author María Amparo Ruíz de Burton, Puerto Rican historian and collector Arturo Schomburg, Guatemalan civil rights organizer Luisa Moreno, and Mexican American politician Edward Roybal. Their unique and valuable contributions have helped shape our nation"--Back cover.

The Marriage Counselor Jun 14 2021 Daphne is fed up with her husband, not only did he cheat on her but he has no idea how to please her in bed. The problem is she just can't open up and tell him her true desires. She can barely admit to herself what she really wants. That all changes when a session with a sexy female marriage counselor unlocks those hidden desires and Daphne finally experiences what she has been craving for such a long time. This is an explicit erotic short story of approximately 5,000 words. It contains graphic language and sexual themes. It is meant only for adults who are interested in this type of material for viewing in jurisdictions where its sale and enjoyment does not violate any local laws.

New Queer Cinema Aug 24 2019 B. Ruby Rich designated a brand new genre, the New Queer Cinema (NQC), in her groundbreaking article in the Village Voice in 1992. This movement in film and video was intensely political and aesthetically innovative, made possible by the debut of the camcorder, and driven initially by outrage over the unchecked spread of AIDS. The genre has grown to include an entire generation of queer artists, filmmakers, and activists. As a critic, curator, journalist, and scholar, Rich has been inextricably linked to the New Queer Cinema from its inception. This volume presents her new thoughts on the topic, as well as bringing together the best of her writing on the NQC. She follows this cinematic movement from its origins in the mid-1980s all the way to the present in essays and articles directed at a range of audiences, from readers of academic journals to popular glossies and weekly newspapers. She presents her insights into such NQC pioneers as Derek Jarman and Isaac Julien and investigates such celebrated films as Go Fish, Brokeback Mountain, Itty Bitty Titty Committee, and Milk. In addition to exploring less-known films and international cinemas (including Latin American and French films and videos), she documents the more recent incarnations of the NQC on screen, on the web, and in art galleries.

Faccio tutto quello che vuoi Jun 26 2022 Romance - racconto lungo (53 pagine) - Lei è bella, sicura di sé, abituata a cambiare gli uomini a sua discrezione, piantandoli in asso quando non la soddisfano più. Ma quando si ritrova davanti quell'uomo misterioso, che sembra capace di dominarla come nessuno ha mai fatto, capisce di essere pronta a cambiare. Per fare tutto ciò che lui vuole, pur di possederlo e farsi possedere... Una donna single, abituata a reggere le redini del gioco, sia in amore sia fra le lenzuola, che passa da un amante all'altro sicura di se stessa e della sua avvenenza, si ritrova catapultata in una situazione disarmante, che non avrebbe mai immaginato: per una volta è lei a essere costretta a trattenersi dal raggiungere le vette del piacere, mentre lui, l'uomo misterioso che si cela dietro una maschera dorata che raffigura il dio greco Apollo, le ordina di fare ciò che le dice, se vorrà possedere il suo corpo e farsi possedere da lui. E lei è così piena di desiderio e di ardore, che per la prima volta nella sua vita si ritroverà a dire, credendoci con tutta se stessa: Per te sì, sono pronta a fare tutto quello che vuoi! Arlina Ray è una ragazza che ama scrivere storie romantiche e passionali. Sa che le donne hanno un forte potere di seduzione, e crede che sia giusto sfruttarlo fino in fondo: perché rinunciare a un simile dono della natura? Vive a Milano, e ha già pubblicato con Delos Digital i racconti bestseller Bello e impossibile (collana Passioni Romantiche) e Voglio che mi guardi (Senza Sfumature).

The Truth about Everything Dec 29 2019 A deliciously iconoclastic and often funny historical survey of Western philosophy. . . . This irreverent tour will goad armchair philosophers to independent thought. - Publishers brilliant ending. - New Humanity Throughout history, well-known theories of reality, knowledge, mind, and most particularly the professional philosophers who rely on them for their intellectual existence, have sought to isolate universal truths and structure the history of philosophy to distinguish schools and movements that seek a comprehensive understanding of our world. But in this well-intended pursuit of truth, have we lost sight of what philosophy is? Matthew Stewart believes we have. His rowdy guided tour of the search for truth romps through traditional histories of philosophy using parables, imaginary dialogues, and illustrations to demonstrate that knowing theories, recognizing revered schools, and distinguishing the views of the great philosophers isn't what philosophy should be about. Once removed from the clutches of historicism, the compulsion for universal answers, and the perception that reason is a peculiarly Western possession, the nature of philosophy can be seen as a genuine human disposition to love and respect knowledge coupled with a desire for critical thinking. Matthew Stewart (New York, NY) holds a doctorate in philosophy from Oxford University and is a founding partner of the Mitchell Madison Group, a management consulting firm.

WeeklyAnyone thinking of a major in philosophy would do well to read this . . . - Philadelphia City PaperHis acid humor and frank discussions are a welcome comic interlude for the serious student of philosophy. - Philosophy and Religion Expert Editor's Recommended Book, Amazon.com. . . delightful irreverence . . .

Bestselling Author, Lexy Timms. One night love affair It was only supposed to be one night. Ashley's just a low step on the ladder of her company's success. The company party was always a big to-do. Jimmy Sheldon, the CEO and found of Big Steps always made sure his employees had a good time. He should, he worked them hard, expected more than they thought they could give, but he always rewarded their efforts. It's what made him a great boss and the owner of a million-dollar company. He knew how to make things work. And boy, did he. A few too many cosmo's and Ashley hit the dance floor. She forgot how much fun it was to dance. After a few songs, her years of competitive dance routines came back to her and she had everyone trying to move like her. Even boss-man Jimmy. And he had some decent dance moves himself. From the dance floor to the hotel room, Ashley swore they'd both forget what happened in the morning and go back to their steps on the ladder. Except, no one ever forgets a hit song... Building Billions: Part 1 Part 2 Part 3

The Social Construction of Lesbianism Mar 31 2020 The old model of lesbianism as a pathological affliction has largely given way to a liberal social scientific one which presents it as an alternative lifestyle, a way of loving, a sexual preference, or a source of personal fulfilment. This controversial book argues that the shift from pathological' to gay affirmative' research merely substitutes one depoliticized construction of lesbianism for another. The author contends that the gay affirmative model is fundamentally incompatible with radical feminist theory in which lesbianism is a political statement representing the bonding of women against male supremacy. This volume was awarded a 1989 Distinguished Publication Award by the Association for Women in Psychology.

In Changing Times Feb 08 2021 The HIV/AIDS epidemic has been a major catastrophe for gay communities. In less than two decades, the disease has profoundly changed the lives of gay men and lesbians. Not just a biological and viral agent, HIV has become an opportunistic social invader, reshaping communities and the distribution of wealth, altering the social careers of gay professionals and the patterns of entry into gay and lesbian life, and giving birth to groups like ACT UP and Queer Nation. The distinguished contributors to this volume discuss the ways HIV/AIDS has changed collective and individual identities, as well as lives, of gay men and lesbians, and how these alterations have changed our perceptions of the epidemic. They cover such topics as the impact of the epidemic on small towns, cultural barriers to AIDS prevention, gay youth and intergenerational relations, and the roles of lesbians in AIDS organizations. This collection provides compelling insights into the new communities among gay men and lesbians and the new kinds of identities and relationships that are emerging from the social and cultural ferment engendered by HIV/AIDS. Contributors include Barry D. Adam, Lourdes Arguelles, Rafael Miguel Diaz, John H. Gagnon, Gilbert Herdt, Gregory M. Herek, Nan D. Hunter, Peter M. Nardi, John L. Peterson, Anne Rivero, Gayle S. Rubin, Beth E. Schneider, and Nancy E. Stoller.

Chateau Noir: A Victorian Fantasy Jan 10 2021 A Victorian Tale of Dark Eroticism in the exotic tradition of "The Story of O" and "Emmanuelle", when classic erotica carried not only the forbidden, but a touch of the truly dangerous. A secluded estate somewhere in Europe houses a secret training school for the "finest courtesans the world has ever known". Where the arts of pleasure are learned through discipline and control. Clockwork mechanisms of pleasure and pain. Encouraged lesbianism. Even the deadly secret path reputedly tread by Cleopatra herself. The young women of the mysterious Chateau Noir are taught it all. But be forewarned: In the twisting corridors of the Dark Chateau, there are no shades of grey!  Adults only!  Since its original release in Great Britain in 1999, Frank Watson's "Chateau Noir" has sold over 30,000 copies. Now officially out of print in paper format, this e-book version makes this erotic classic available once again. Frank Watson is also the author, in partnership with Rebecca Lynn Forest, of "Clitsy Weldon -- The Extremely Erotic Adventures of a Teen Girl Detective." Frank Watson divides his time between Paris and London.

Transgender History Apr 12 2021 Covering American transgender history from the mid-twentieth century to today, Transgender History takes a chronological approach to the subject of transgender history, with each chapter covering major movements, writings, and events. Chapters cover the transsexual and transvestite communities in the years following World War II; trans radicalism and social change, which spanned from 1966 with the publication of The Transsexual Phenomenon, and lasted through the early 1970s; the mid-'70s to 1990-the era of identity politics and the changes witnessed in trans circles through these years; and the gender issues witnessed through the '90s and '00s. Transgender History includes informative sidebars highlighting quotes from major texts and speeches in transgender history and brief biographies of key players, plus excerpts from transgender memoirs and discussion of treatments of transgenderism in popular culture.

Lesbianism Made Easy Oct 31 2022 The essential guide to enjoying modern lesbianism These days, lesbians are everywhere you turn, streaming for your entertainment or commenting on the important political movements and hairdos of the day. Yet as more doors open on this often-misunderstood world, who hasn't found him- or herself wondering how he or she might uncover the secrets, experience the glamour, enjoy the special advantages of lesbianism? Helen Eisenbach's hilariously irreverent guide provides a front-row seat to a largely female universe where love, lust, and forbidden laughter are just a fingertip away. Sharing hard-earned truths with sly insight and wit, Eisenbach reveals the fascinating inside story of a growing culture and shows how anyone can acquire the skills and state of mind to be a lesbian. From flirting to family values, from work to play, from enlightening friends, relatives, or strangers to figuring out how to have sex with women or choose a pet, Lesbianism Made Easy answers all your questions—and some you didn't know you had.

Routledge International Encyclopedia of Queer Culture Nov 19 2021 The Routledge International Encyclopedia of Queer Culture covers gay, lesbian, bisexual, transgender and queer (GLBTQ) life and culture post-1945, with a strong international approach to the subject. The scope of the work is extremely comprehensive, with entries falling into the broad categories of Dance, Education, Film, Health, Homophobia, the Internet, Literature, Music, Performance, and Politics. Slang is also covered. The international contributors come from a wide array of backgrounds: scholars, journalists, artists, doctors, scientists, lawyers, activists, and an enormous range of ideologies and points of view are represented. Major entries provide in-depth information and consider the intellectual and cultural implications of their subjects in a global context. Information is completely up-to-date, including full coverage and analysis of such current or ongoing issues as same-sex marriage/civil union and the international AIDS epidemic. Additionally, there are important appendices covering international sodomy laws and archival institutions, which will be of great value to researchers. The Encyclopedia is fully cross-referenced and many entries carry a bibliography. Where possible internet references have been given and there is a full index. The combination of its wide scope, determined international coverage and appendices make the Routledge International Encyclopedia of Queer Culture a uniquely ambitious work and an extremely rich source of information. It is a priority addition for all libraries serving scholars and students with an interest in GLBTQ culture, history and politics across the disciplines.

Twelve Years a Slave May 26 2022 "Having been born a freeman, and for more than thirty years enjoyed the blessings of liberty in a free State—and having at the end of that time been kidnapped and sold into Slavery, where I remained, until happily rescued in the month of January, 1853, after a bondage of twelve years—it has been suggested that an account of my life and fortunes would not be uninteresting to the public." -an excerpt

Menage A Trois Jul 24 2019 The concert hall was packed. But then, it was always full when Marco Andalucci came to town. I have attended every concert he's given here in our town since I was a little girl. I sat in the cushioned chair between my father and my sister, Hazel, waiting for the concert to begin. My mother, Anna Christina flipped the program over, looking at the names of the pieces to be performed. Papa grunted, shifting in his chair as he tugged at his tie. He hated dressing up and much more preferred his usual work attire while working in the vineyard our family owned. "Oh how I hate this tie," he grumbled tugging at it again. I patted him on the arm. "But you look so handsome, Papa. You are by far the handsomest man in the whole hall." He continued to grumble a bit but the corners of his mouth curved and his eyes were twinkling, letting me know that he wasn't angry. He secretly liked coming to the concerts. And more, he knew that Mama, Hazel and I also enjoyed getting all dressed up and coming to see the performances. After a few moments, the lights dimmed signaling the start of the...

Klitoride Extravaganz Sep 29 2022 A collection of lesbian fetish fantasies told in pictures, with accompanying text in German and English. The pictures graphically illustrate extreme lesbian body fantasies in a manner reminiscent of shock circus productions, featuring bondage, physical enhancement and dark dreamlike fantasia. The focus is the body itself, with participants often decorated in stylised versions of vein and muscle or grotesquely enlarged with latex body parts. A work from Krista Beinstein of German fetish performance group Leg Stone Productions.

Techniques of Pleasure Dec 09 2020 In this lively ethnography, Weiss studies the pansexual BDSM community in the San Francisco Bay Area. Weiss finds that BDSM practice is not as transgressive as the participants imagine, nor is it simply reinforcing of older forms of social domination. Instead she shows how fantasy play depends on pre-existing social hierarchies, even as it also participates in a commodification of desires.

The Spider King's Daughter Jul 28 2022 Winner of a Betty Trask Award Shortlisted for the Dylan Thomas Prize and the Commonwealth Book Prize Longlisted for the Desmond Elliot Prize The Spider King's Daughter is a modern-day Romeo and Juliet set against the backdrop of a changing Lagos, a city torn between tradition and modernity, corruption and truth, love and family loyalty. Seventeen-year-old Abike Johnson is the favourite child of her wealthy father. She lives in a sprawling mansion in Lagos, protected by armed guards and ferried everywhere in a huge black jeep. But being her father's favourite comes with uncomfortable duties, and she is often lonely behind the high walls of her house. A world away from Abike's mansion, in the city's slums, lives a seventeen-year-old hawker struggling to make sense of the world. His family lost everything after his father's death and now he runs after cars on the roadside selling ice cream to support his mother and sister. When Abike buys ice cream from the hawker one day, they strike up an unlikely and tentative romance, defying the prejudices of Nigerian society. But as they grow closer, revelations from the past threaten their relationship and both Abike and the hawker must decide where their loyalties lie.

Honeymoon Hotel Mar 24 2022 The young girl -- nineteen, freckled-faced, and with a surprisingly mature body for one her age -- was dressed in skin-tight white shorts and was braless beneath her powder blue blouse. She lay 'crosswise on the bed, and stared up at an older girl who was standing before a mirror and running a comb through long blonde hair. "But aren't you excited?" Marylou asked, shivering in vicarious enjoyment. "I mean ... I would be! After all, your wedding is only two days away, and then you and Dick go to that groovy castle place in Ireland for your honeymoon. Why, you must be excited." "Of course I am, silly." Sue's voice was patient with her cousin. "I'm happy and excited. But I'm also calm." That last statement was a lie, but Marylou couldn't know it. The younger girl couldn't see the turmoil Sue felt, the oppressive feeling of apprehension that bordered on fear.

Slave for a Day Sep 17 2021 It never occurred to Hannah that she might actually lose the slave for a day bet to Charlie. Public Sex Nov 07 2020 The most intelligent and outspoken commentator on sexual politics writing today, Pat Califia has been "fuming and fussing" about censorship and the rights of perverts for more than two decades. Whether writing about gender bending and transsexuality, lesbian relationships, S/M and leather sex, sex between lesbians and gay men, eroticizing latex and safer sex, prostitution, or sex in public, Califia's essays—clear consistent, provocative and eminently readable—set the standard for writing about sex.
